

HURON VALLEY WOODTURNERS

May 2015

May 17th minutes

1. New guests to our club: Mike Carillo from Holly. He wanted to pick people's brains re: new location for their club after the owner of the building died.

Charlie, friend of Jose, is head of Eisenhower Center mentoring people with traumatic brain injury to learn new eye hand coordination. One client has now made two bats. We will set up a larger mentoring program for their clients.

2. Dan contacted Hartville Tool – they are no longer publishing a hard copy of the catalog but any of the club members can contact them for online notification re: specials.

3. He has Penn State and Packard catalogs.

4. He just got three certificates from Craft Supply

5. Erik Blum has requested to be removed as treasurer. Treasurer Tasks: give a financial report (how much money brought in), any expenditures, ending balance. It's a Sunday activity, not a labor intensive job. Mark Wallace agreed to step in to the role!

6. Executive forum: we will be meeting before the general meeting at 11:30 to be in accordance with our bylaws.

7. Treasurer's report: Please pay dues.

8. We brainstormed ideas for the special raffle: Fordham sander, David Ellsworth signature gouge, Jameson boring system, Wolverine sharpening system, digital caliper), laser system, cbn on wheels ($180)—will be the special raffle item.

9. Need for Demonstrators: Mark will give demo on triangular bowls—off center turning.

10. Raffle and President's Challenge: Erica won last month's challenge of the parting tool tree.

11. No Show and Tell this month.

12. President's Challenge: Live edged bowl for June.
